

Jacqueline Bertault is a French American who was born in New York City but grew up in Arizona, where she began her ballet studies at age four.

Jacqueline then attended the School of Ballet Arizona and the Scottsdale School of Ballet until age 16.

When Ms. Bertault moved to France she studied at the prestigious École Supérieure de Danse de Cannes Rosella Hightower. After a year in Cannes, she attended the Houston Ballet Academy for two years, where she performed with the Houston Ballet and covered company roles.

In 2019, she moved to Chicago to become a part of the Joffrey Ballet Trainee Program, and in 2021, joined the Milwaukee Ballet second company where she performed corps de ballets roles in all of the company productions.

Jacqueline Bertault has also attended numerous summer programs including the Paris Opera Ballet School, San Francisco Ballet School, Houston Ballet Academy, the International Ballet Masterclasses in Prague, and various workshops throughout Europe including Marseille, Barcelona, and Cannes.

Jacqueline Bertault is also earning a Bachelor's degree in Psychology and minoring in Digital Marketing.

Jacqueline is excited to be a part of the Carole Alexis Ballet Theater company / Ballet des Amériques and is grateful for sharing her love and passion for dance with others.
