

Johnathon Darcelle Hart (JD), started his training at the Chicago High School for The Arts. He also attended The Joffrey Ballet School, Deeply Rooted Dance Theater, Ballet Chicago, and The Hyde Park School of Dance. He then furthered his training at the San Francisco Ballet School. In school, he learned various techniques from ballet, modern, contemporary, jazz, hip-hop, African, and character dance. Upon graduation, he danced with BalletMet for 3 seasons where he performed various roles such as the Pas de Trois in Giselle, Spanish in Swan Lake, Chinese in Nutcracker, and worked with choreographers like Edwaard Liang, Amy Seiwert, and Dana Genshaft. While furthering his ballet career, he had the opportunity to go on tour with Lil Kim and Anita Baker. He's currently an artist signed with Clear Talent, where he's been able to do everything his heart desires and more from commercials with Anthropologie, TV shows like Squid Games and Etoilé, Hermès Fashion show, Lyric Opera Chicago, and The SugarHill Nutcracker.

This is Johnathon's first season with Carole Alexis Ballet Theatre company / Ballet des Amériques and he is excited to share his passion with everyone and have a great season!
